Press Release

New Reid Kerr College Principal

The Board of Management at Reid Kerr College is delighted to announce the appointment of Audrey Cumberland as the College's new Principal and Chief Executive who will succeed Joe Mooney from January 2011.

Paul Buchanan, Chair of the Board of Management said "Following a comprehensive search and selection process the Board unanimously approved the appointment of the College's current Vice Principal, Audrey Cumberland as Principal. The Board look forward to working with Audrey as Principal and continuing to secure Reid Kerr College's position at the forefront of Scottish education."

Audrey, who is now one of Scotland's youngest Principals, has many successful years experience in private industry before taking on a management role within the college sector. Audrey joined the Senior Management team at Reid Kerr College in 1999 before being promoted to the post of Vice Principal in January 2005.

Audrey commented "I am delighted to have been given the opportunity to lead Reid Kerr College in what promises to be an exciting and challenging time. The College has a strong track record and reputation in providing high quality education and training to the people of Renfrewshire and beyond and has a critical role to play in its contribution to sustaining the economic recovery in Scotland."
