Motherwell College Music Students Release Their First Single - Runaway

HND Music students Danielle Tonner and John Muir are to release their debut single 'Runaway' with their band Till This Night.

Till This Night have been together for one year and, after previously releasing an EP as part of last year's college project, they are hoping to chart with the debut single which is released this week.

Having studied music at NQ level, before progressing to HNC and now HND in Rock and Pop, Danielle and John feel that regularly working with Graeme Duffin from Wet Wet Wet as their producer adds a great deal to their sound.

Graeme helps run the Foundry Music Lab (FML) which has a strong partnership with the College, facilitating the more practical side of the music courses.

Danielle said: "The advantage we have being on the music course is that a lot of the stuff we previously had dreamed about doing in music we get to do on a day to day basis by being at the College.

"To think we are in a position of releasing a single and going on our own UK tour as part of our coursework makes us feel very fortunate."

The music courses at Motherwell College have gained a lot of press attention over the past year, having had guest lecturers including Dave McGeehan and Dave Corbit, who manage DF Concerts which run T in The park, music journalist Billy Sloan, Graeme Clark, and entrepreneur Michelle Mone.

The course was named Music Course of the year at the Scottish New Music Awards and John Muir was delighted with the achievement.

He added: "To be honest every single one of us feels a great sense of achievement. Our lecturers and fellow students have all been part of winning that award.

"We take our work very seriously and unless you are part of it, it is hard to explain how good an atmosphere there is on the music course."

Till This Night start their college project/UK tour at the HMV Picture House in Edinburgh on Saturday 24th September 2011 and the debut single Runaway is released on Friday 23rd September 2011. It is available as a download from www.soundcloud.com/tillthisnight and www.facebook.com/tillthisnight.

Motherwell College moved to a new campus at Ravenscraig in July 2009. More than 20,000 students and 500+ staff continue to take advantage of the high quality education programmes the College offers in the new 21st century £70 million facilities.
